Bible Reading Schedule Arrangement and Division:

1. Each day's reading is approximately equal in length.
2. Readings are divided by paragraph or thought breaks in the text.
3. An *(asterisk) indicates the thought continues in the next day's reading.
4. The Gospel of John is placed between Mark and Luke to give a break in reading the Synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) which are written very similarly, and to put Luke's two books together (Luke and Acts).
5. Old Testament readings are by chronological order according to event, rather than the date of writing.
